657. PERFORMING HOMAGE ON GRAND MINISTER'S BIRTHDAY.

Inscription: Kao Tzu-i, a Grand Minister of Tang Dynasty, was born at Hua-chow, and died at the age of 82, and was granted the posthumous title of King Chung Wu of Feng Yang.

Translation: The King Chung Wu of Feng Yang has been worshipped by the people of this district for a number of years. In what manner the people in former generations burnt their incense and performed their ceremonies of worship, I don't know, but the thing within my knowledge, is that at present in both Spring and Autumn every year, grand festivals are observed in his honor during which porks and chickens are served at the table in every home, and most of the people are found drunkards.

Having wrought a great merit in saving his country, and enjoyed a long life, the king became a Spirit-man, and has since been regularly offered with meat sacrifice, and honored with the burning of incense without the least interruption. Those who beseech Him for blessing and offer vessels of congee in His worship, will surely promote the genuine harmony in the Universe which is a great blessing to mankind. The above should not be regarded as a mere eloquent eulogy.

Now, inasmuch as you, young gentlemen have organized a society to worship Him before His picture, cleaning the wine cups, feasting together, as if in the meeting of the aged heroes held at Le-yang, indulging in wild talks, and holding one another's hands if harmony will predominate at the feast, and the Spirit-man will no doubt bless you.
